4. Regulation for language training students

1) Being late 3 times will result in a mark for 1 hour absent.

2) Certification and Level Achievement Policy

- : You must attend a minimum of 80% of the lessons scheduled for the course.
- : The total score must be more than 70% to receive a passing grade for the next level. In addition, each category of the mid-term and final test must be over 40%.

* Exception: At the discretion of the international affairs office, the above policy may be waived for non-trainees and/or acquirers of Topic level regardless of the test result.

3) School Administration

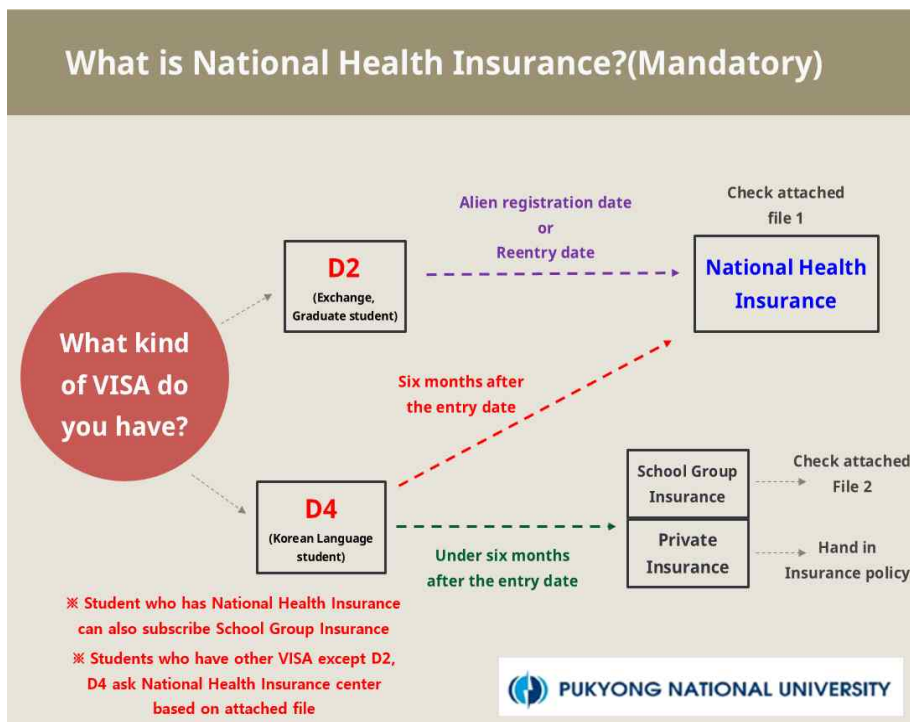

The following cases can be referred to the disciplinary committee. The students can be expelled based on the decisions of the disciplinary committee.

- : involvement in a criminal case and/or in illegal acts. For example, part-time jobs without proper visa
- : disruptive to other students' dignity
- : absence without notice for more than 2 weeks
- : false information is discovered on documents submitted when you enrolled or reenrolled.
- : As per below table, 3 red cards result in dismissal.

Yellow card(cautions)	Red card(warnings)
-absence without notice for more than 2 days in a row. -failing to reach the next level advancement more than 2 times in a row(the third time yellow card issued) -attendance for the semester is under 80% -leave Korea temporarily without consultation from the teachers (it is applied only to D4 visa holders) - poor attitude in a class is reported to division of student affairs by a teacher in charge	1 red card after 2 yellow cards is given (cumulative process during the language training period)

- 5) The restriction of D4 Visa extension (D4 visa is only available for 2 years)
- : If the attendance rate is less than 70%, submit a certificate of bank balance (over 4.4 million won) and submit a letter of apology to Immigration office
 - : If attendance rate is less than 50%: Visa extension is not possible
 - : In case of missing the visa deadline: Imposition of a fine
